

"TED" A NUISANCE, DECLARES COURT

Owner of Pug Dog that Annoyed Flat Tenants with His Barking Must Get Rid of the Animal.

JUDGE GIVES ONLY A WEEK.

Philip H. Brady, Indignant Master of the Canine Pet, Declares that the Dog is a Real Gentleman and Wouldn't Annoy Anybody.

Teddy Roosevelt, Mrs. Philip H. Brady's pug dog, over which the tenants of the Dorothy apartment-house, at One Hundred and Fortieth street and Seventh avenue, have long been at sword's point, caused the appearance to-day of Mrs. Brady, as well as a dozen other tenants, in the Court of Special Sessions.

Teddy, carried in the arms of his mistress, surveyed the staid, dignified Justices on the bench, sniffed suspiciously, and then wagged his crooked tail.

It is now nearly a year since Mrs. Brady and Mrs. R. P. Sniffen, who occupy adjoining apartments in the big house, fell out over Teddy's barking proclivities. Mrs. Sniffen declared that the pug's barking awakened her before sunrise every day. When the husbands took it up and before many weeks elapsed the friends of the two families were arrayed in battle. And there are still fifty-three families in the Dorothy.

Mr. Sniffen wrote to the Board of Health a month ago complaining of Teddy. The dog didn't care, but kept up his barking. So Mr. Brady was summoned to court. He admitted he owned Teddy, but denied the dog was a nuisance.

"He's just the sweetest, loveliest little baby," remarked Mrs. Brady, who accompanied her husband to court.

Several of the tenants duplicated the statement vigorously.

Mr. Brady was held for trial in Special Sessions and to-day appeared. He pleaded guilty to the specific charge of "having a barking dog on the night of Oct. 1."

"The dog is not declared a nuisance by my plea, is he?" Mr. Brady asked his counsel.

"How often does he bark?" Inquired Justice Holbrook, meaning the dog.

"To the best of my recollection I can remember him barking on the house."

"Yes, dozens of them."

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brady declared with vehemence that "Teddy" was "a real gentleman" dog and to call him a nuisance would be a slander.

Mrs. Sniffen and her husband angrily declared that they were on the verge of becoming prostrated, caused by the continual barking of the pug. Eugene McQueen, another tenant, testified that his nerves had been wrecked by "Teddy."

"I can't sleep in the afternoon," declared pretty Mrs. Marshall, "because of his continual barking."

Justice Holbrook decided that according to the testimony there was no doubt that "Teddy" was a nuisance.

"I will give you one week," the judge said to Mr. Brady, "to get rid of him. You must do the nuisance."

"Teddy" simply blinked as his mistress in tears looked him in the presence of the three cruel justices.

Charles W. Winter, of This City, Unconsciously Leaves His Room in the Night and Fractures His Skull.

Charles W. Winter, a New York other, living at No. 36 South Eighth avenue, Mount Vernon, fell downstairs at his home at 8 o'clock this morning while walking in his sleep and it is feared his skull is fractured.

The first his family knew of the accident was when they heard the crash of his body striking the balustrade of the stairs. When they arrived at his side he was unconscious and was apparently badly hurt. A physician was summoned, who said he believed that the injured man's skull was fractured, but that it would not be known before this could be definitely determined.

It was stated later in the morning that Winter was resting as well as could be expected, but as a condition is very critical. He is one of the crack bowlers of Mount Vernon, being a member of the well-known Westchester Wheelers' team. He is about thirty-five years old.

BELIEVE IN MULLIGAN.

First Regiment Irish Volunteers Officers Do Not Believe in Charge Against Him.

The case of Capt. P. J. Mulligan, of the First Regiment of the Irish Volunteers, who has been accused of a "murder" of oppression, has brought the Volunteers to his assistance.

Mulligan is out on parole. He says the case is one of spite because his father, who was a contractor, was an enemy of the man who caused his arrest. He says there is $24 in wages due on the work which he is business agent of the bricklayers' union on collecting, and there is in no way any relation between this act and the crime of which Sam Parks was guilty.

The Board of Officers of the First Irish Volunteers, who yesterday and resolved that, having known Capt. Mulligan for many years, they place on record their confidence in his honor, integrity, and that when such cases are established his reputation as an officer and gentleman will still shine unimpaired.

Africanus Rebel Against Kaiser. CAPE TOWN, Dec. 28.—A general insurrection has broken out among the bondswoman tribes in Great Namaqualand, and German soldiers are being sent to suppress the rebellion.

"HUSBAND CANNOT STEAL FROM WIFE."

So Declares Counsel of Capt. Fysh, Accused of Taking $10,000 Diamond Necklace from His Spouse.

"IS UNLAWFULLY DETAINED."

Prisoner Admits He Gave the Jewelry to Mrs. James F. Hyland, but Says She Obtained Them from Him by Fraud.

Capt. John A. "Fysh," who has been locked up in the Tombs over Christmas in default of $1,500 bail on the charge of stealing a $10,000 diamond necklace belonging to his wife, Alberta C. Suggs, "Fish," was taken before Justice Scott in the Supreme Court to-day on a writ of habeas corpus.

The writ was obtained by Frank A. K. Boland, who asserts that a man cannot steal from his wife, and therefore Capt. Fysh is unlawfully detained.

The captain got his military title while serving in the British Colonial Cavalry in the late South African war, but his wife declares she doesn't know when he got the "Fysh" in his surname, and she insists on spelling it "Fish."

Keeper "Billy" Evers had Capt. Fysh in custody. The captain wore a conspicuous snuff-colored waistcoat, with black coat and trousers.

"Fond Love and Kisses."

Capt. Fysh admits he gave the necklace in dispute to Mrs. James F. Hyland, but declares that she got it from him by fraud, though he did write a note to her which closed with "Fond love and kisses from Jack."

After waiting an hour for the Police Court stenographer's report of the examination of Capt. Fysh, Mr. Boland asked for an adjournment until Wednesday, and got it.

DEATHS IN WRECK NOW NUMBER 22

Several of the Twenty-nine Who Were Seriously Injured in Collision on Pere Marquette Railroad Cannot Survive.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Dec. 28.—The death list as the result of the head-on collision between two fast passenger trains on the Pere Marquette Railroad, near East Paris, has been increased to twenty-two, and several of the twenty-nine seriously injured cannot live.

For five minutes before the trains came together the train dispatcher and every operator along the line knew the fatality was inevitable. The red signal light in the little tower at McCord's Station was set to stop the west-bound train to await the east-bound, which was late.

To his horror the operator saw the train rumble past in the blizzard. He staggered to the platform and discovered that the wind had blown out the signal light. Running back to his key he wired the train dispatcher and the dispatcher at once ordered the west-bound train to stop.

The crash down to await the awful news.

The dispatcher sent messengers for medical aid and nurses and ordered out a relief train and a wrecking crew. Both had started to the scene before the crash, and the west-bound train returned to McCord's and reported that the two trains had come together at full speed on a sharp curve.

TRIUMPHANT

Over Nervousness, Sleeplessness and All Stomach Troubles.

DYSPEPSIA

And Colds Yield at Once to This Wonderful Vegetable Pepsin.

Munyon's Paw-Paw perfects the several fluids that have to do with digestion and establishes their perfect action. These are the words of Prof. William H. Morse, one of the foremost chemists and physiologists of England.

There you have it—the perfect action of every digestive fluid. What more can there be? That means normal appetite, perfect digestion and all the good things of the food taken up for the proper support of every organ of the body.

That is why the poison of disease is driven out by my Paw-Paw.

That is why ordinary disease can get so good where my Paw-Paw is used.

That is why my Paw-Paw takes away the appetite and the need for stimulants.

I know that my Paw-Paw will do these things, and I know that it will cure Dyspepsia, it will cure Sleeplessness, it will cure Catarrh, it will make rich blood, give mental and body vigor.

It cures catarrh by driving out the poison of disease and healing the inflamed surfaces. It stimulates without intoxicating. It lifts and builds. Alcoholic drinks lift and let you drop—keep them away.

DYING, REFUSED TO SIGN STATEMENT

Henry Weichhausen Accused John Barandon of Striking Him—Latter Held on Charge of Homicide.

Charged with homicide, John Barandon, twenty-six years old, of No. 393 Fulton street, Brooklyn, was held to-day in the Grand Avenue Police Court.

The complaint placed upon him the responsibility for the death of Henry Weichhausen, thirty-eight years old, of No. 53 Liberty avenue, who died to-day in the Kings County Hospital of peritonitis caused by a punch in the stomach said to have been delivered by Barandon on Christmas Eve.

There are two versions of the punch, one that the two men were skylarking and another that they came to blows after an argument. While dying Weichhausen made a statement accusing Barandon, but he refused to sign it.

The skylarking or the fight occurred at the home of Henry Mayrose, father-in-law of the dead man, No. 351 Liberty avenue, during the height of a Christmas Eve celebration.

DIED IN BOSTON FIRE. BOSTON, Dec. 28.—Damage estimated at $15,000 was caused to-day in the three-story brick block, No. 18-19 Court street, and a man known to the tenants only as Marshall lost his life by suffocation. Marshall was something of an inventor, and is said to have been working on an airplane model.

FISHERMEN RESCUED. PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Dec. 28.—Four men from the fishing schooner Apomattox, who were lost on the fishing grounds off Cape Cod during the gale Saturday afternoon, arrived here to-day on the schooner Ralph Russell. They were picked up by the Russell while battling with the terrible seas and lay wind in their dories.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, of Lilydale, N. Y., Grand Worthy Wise Templar, and Member of W. C. T. U., tells how she recovered from a serious illness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can to-day thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the cures your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of all my troubles."

"My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of different kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, Box 105, Lilydale, N. Y.

Thousands upon thousands of women throughout this country are not only expressing such sentiments as the above to their friends, but are continually writing letters of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham, until she has hundreds of thousands of letters from women in all classes of society who have been restored to health by her advice and medicine after all other means had failed.

Here is another letter which proves conclusively that there is no other medicine to equal Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—I suffered with poor health for over seven years, not sick enough to stay in bed, and not well enough to enjoy life and attend to my daily duties properly. I was growing thin, my complexion was sallow, and I was easily upset and irritable."

"One of my neighbors advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I procured a bottle. A great change for the better took place within a week, and I decided to keep up the treatment."

"Within two months I was like a changed woman, my health good, my step light, my eyes bright, my complexion vastly improved, and I felt once more like a young girl. I wonder now how I ever endured the misery I would not spend another year like it for a fortune."

"I appreciate my good health, and give all the praise to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. M. Tilla, 407 Habersham St., Savannah, Ga.

Mrs. Pinkham's has on file thousands of such letters.
